SUBJECT:

Dear Ken,

It'll be nice to see you in Hong Kong on the first of January. I've made a plan for your visit here. You can mark the activities on your calendar.

On the third of January, I would like to invite you to my school's Open Day. You will love it.

I know the twelfth is a special day – your birthday! We'll have a party for you with games, presents and tasty food. My mum and I will make chicken wings, fries, hamburgers and a birthday cake.

On the twenty-second, we'll visit Uncle John. He has a farm. He grows carrots, tomatoes and potatoes. I like the big carrots there. I know your favourite vegetable is tomatoes. So you can eat lots of them.

We'll go to Lantau Island by ferry the day before you leave. We'll try the seafood there. It's yummy. I'm sure we'll enjoy the food!

See you soon.

Cindy

Ken: Yes, he loves war games. I know what to buy for him. Dad likes playing tennis. He needs something to protect him from the sun. Hm...I'll buy him something to put on his head. And Mum loves eating snacks. I want to get her something sweet.

Cindy: What about you? I know you smashed your badminton racket last week. You can't use it anymore.
