Part 4

Paul is reading a story.

Part 4A

Read the first part of the story.

The Beehive (Part 1)

One day, little Jenny was playing outside. She was skipping on the bridge next to her home. Jenny did not know there was a beehive hanging under the bridge. She just kept jumping up and down. With all her jumping, she began to scare the bees.

Suddenly, one big bee flew up to Jenny and stung her. Poor Jenny!

“Ouch!” cried Jenny, looking at her hand. A bee had just stung her! “Waaah!”

5

Jenny’s mum ran outside. “What’s the matter, Jenny?” she asked. Jenny pointed to the big red spot on her hand.

“Oh, dear! You’ve been stung by a bee!”

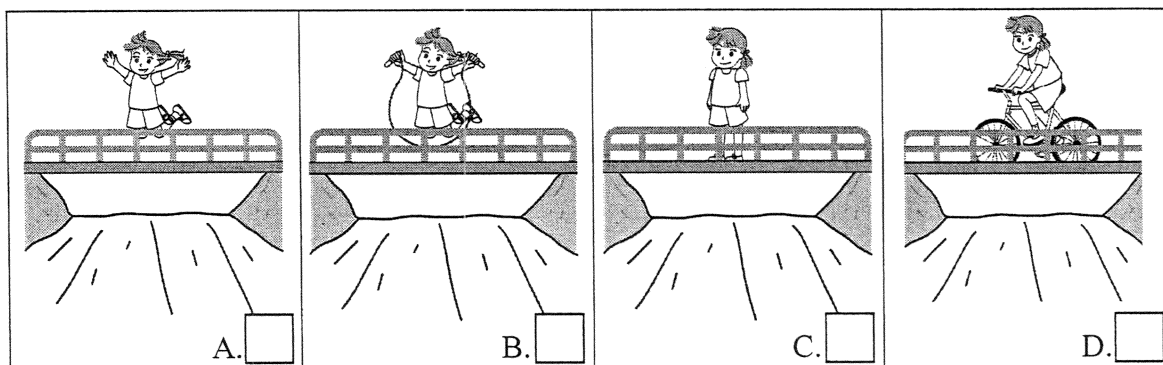

“Yes, and it hurts a lot. Do I need to see a doctor?”

“Yes, but let me put some medicine and a bandage on your hand first.”

The Beehive (Part 2)

Jenny's dad went to the bridge and found the beehive. He took a tree branch and swung hard. "Splat!" The beehive went crashing into the river. Then he ran back to the house as fast as he could.

"Here comes Dad!" Jenny yelled.

"Close the door quickly!" he shouted. "Bang!" Jenny looked out through the window. She could see many angry bees flying around the house. "Buzz! Buzz!" 5

The next morning, all the bees were gone.

"Where did the bees go?" asked Jenny.

"They went to find a new place to build their beehive," her dad answered. 10

"Well, I can't say I really miss them!" smiled Jenny. "I'm just glad that they will build a new home somewhere else."
