Part 1: Reading Aloud

Read the following text.

Eating

Why do people eat? This sounds like a silly question, but food is very important. Of course, everyone has to eat, but some people enjoy food more than others.

Some people enjoy the food they eat very much. They spend a lot of money and time preparing and enjoying good food.

Other people just eat anything to keep their bodies going. They are happy eating quickly and cheaply. They think there are more important things than eating.

Part 2: Teacher-Student Interaction

The teacher will ask you some questions. Answer them.
