Part 2

Cindy is reading a poem.

Read the poem.

- 1 We have just finished our last test,
Fifteen days left in Primary Six.
Time for us to take a rest,
And the last chance we have to mix.
- 5 We don't know how fast time has flown
Until we look back at the years.
Now we know how much we have grown
Through ups and downs, laughter and tears.
- 9 Goodbye, classmates, take good care.
Thanks for the nice things you've done.
And for the things you've shared:
Secrets, jokes, snacks, and times of fun.
- 13 Dear school, how we'll miss you:
The classrooms, playground and school hall,
The old school building white and blue,
And our kind teachers most of all.
- 17 The graduation dinner is coming in June.
Let us write a thank-you song,
And all learn to sing it soon,
To show our school where our hearts belong.

Today is Grandma's 70th birthday. We had a big celebration!

Grandma does not like going out to eat - she prefers homemade food. So we prepared a big dinner for her at home.

In the morning, Mum and Dad went to the market and bought a lot 5 of food. Mum was busy in the kitchen all afternoon. Grandma told her not to make too many dishes. But she got excited when Mum began to make spring rolls, her favourite food. Dad and I baked a cake. We needed help

| Michael: | Now let’s talk about your childhood. Was life easy for you as a child? | 1 |
| Clara: | Not really. I came to Hong Kong when I was 8 and I couldn’t speak Cantonese. My parents weren’t well-off so they had to work long hours just to get enough money for food. They didn’t have time to help me with my homework. But I studied very hard and asked my teachers for help whenever I needed it. In Primary 6, I came first in my class. | 5 |
| Michael: | Well done! When you were a child, were you interested in acting? | |
| Clara: | Never. I didn’t even join the Drama Club at school. My dream was to teach maths! | 10 |
| Michael: | Then how did you get started as an actress? | |
| Clara: | I left school at 17 to make money. My results were good, but I needed to work to support my family. So I became a clerk at a TV company. One day a director asked me to play a small role as a policewoman in a TV drama. That’s how I got started. | 15 |
