Part 1: Reading Aloud

Read the following text aloud.

A Car Accident

I saw a car accident this morning. A boy wanted to cross the road but he did not look carefully. He just ran out into the road. A car was coming and the driver stopped at once. Luckily, the boy was not hurt. However, there was a bus behind the car. It could not stop and hit the back of the car. Someone called the police and they arrived quickly.

Part 2: Teacher-Student Interaction

The teacher will ask you some questions. Answer them.

Part 1: Reading Aloud

Read the following text aloud.

My Grandfather

My grandfather is 80 years old. He is still strong and healthy. He lives with two dogs in the countryside.

My parents and I visit him every month. He has a small farm and he grows vegetables there. Sometimes I help him water the plants. Although it is hot to work under the sun, it is interesting. We usually bring some vegetables home. They are fresh and yummy!

Part 1: Reading Aloud

Read the following text aloud.

The Dragon Boat Festival

The Dragon Boat Festival is my favourite festival. Every year I go to Sha Tin with my family to watch the dragon boat races. The boats are very long and have colourful flags. People play drums and the boats go very fast. The races are noisy but exciting.

When we get home, my mother makes rice dumplings with me. They are fun to make and they taste very good.

Part 1: Reading Aloud

Read the following text aloud.

A Book Report

I read a storybook about Kelly in the library yesterday.

Kelly moved to a new village. She had no friends there. One day, she saw a house near the river. Inside the house, she met some people and animals. They were strange but interesting. Kelly became good friends with them. She went there every day after school.

This is a fantastic story about love and caring for others.
