NOTES TO MARKERS

1. General

(a) Markers are requested to treat the scores as confidential.
(b) Any marker who, for any reason, wishes to withdraw must immediately notify his/her School Coordinator for replacement and inform the Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority of the changes by fax (2351 3447).
(c) Markers are reminded of the importance of keeping the Authority’s marking schemes out of the hands of students, who can be seriously misled by the format used for marking.

2. Vigilance in Handling Scripts

Markers are reminded to exercise vigilance in handling scripts and take precautions throughout the marking period. In order to avoid any loss of scripts, keep scripts in a safe place, never leave scripts unattended, and make sure that scripts are secure in transit.

3. Checking of Scripts

Markers should ensure that the number of scripts received corresponds with the number indicated on the ‘Envelope for Worked Question Answer Booklets’. Please inform the School Coordinator immediately of any discrepancy. The School Coordinator should then report the case to the Authority by fax (2351 3447).

(a) The marking scheme must be STRICTLY adhered to in order to achieve a uniform standard of marking.

(b) The scores for individual questions must be put in the corresponding boxes in the ‘Marker’s Use Only’ column.

(c) Clarity in marking is important. Figures should be clearly written. Corrections should be made by crossing out the original and writing the correct score, e.g. 3 – 2.

(d) Markers should go through every page of the script that needs to be marked since occasionally a student may skip some pages.

5. Enquiry about Marking of Scripts

Peter’s notes

Part 1B

One of the students, Peter, is talking to Miss Wong about the day camp. He is taking some notes.

Write the answer for Questions 6 – 7.

Tapescript

Miss Wong: …You can also play football… You can play football with your classmates.

// (beep)(a pause of 10 seconds)

Peter: I like drawing pictures. Can I draw pictures there?

Miss Wong: Sure. You can draw pictures on the beach. It’s beautiful. // (beep)(a pause of 10 seconds)

Remarks

- Answers for Questions 6 and 7 can be in any order.
- Award a score of 1 for each correct answer.
- Award no score for an incorrect/illegible answer or unattempted question.
- Award no score if the key words ‘football’ and ‘draw’ are spelt incorrectly. However, for Question 6, ‘foot ball’ as two words is acceptable.
- () indicates text which is NOT essential to the answer.
- Do not penalize students for wrong use of capitalization or grammatical mistakes that do not interfere with the communication of ideas.

Remarks

- Award a score of 1 for each correct answer.
- Do not penalize students for wrong use of capitalization, punctuation, spelling or grammatical mistakes that do not interfere with the communication of ideas.
- Award no score for
  - an incorrect/illegible answer or unattempted question.
  - giving no adjective in the description for Questions 2 and 6. (Numbers should not be considered as adjectives here (e.g. two eyes.).)
- The words underlined are the prompts given.

Accuracy

- Scores will be deducted for the section as a whole for making grammatical or spelling mistakes (i.e. Questions 1 – 8, NOT for individual answers).
  - Put ‘1’ in the appropriate box for making more than two spelling mistakes where the items for ‘ideas’ are awarded.
  - Put ‘1’ in the appropriate box for making more than two grammatical mistakes where the items for ‘ideas’ are awarded.
  - Put ‘1’ in the appropriate box for missing punctuation in ALL the sentences.
  - Put ‘0’ in the boxes if no scores are deducted.
Section 2

Question: Write about one more animal in your own words.

Expected Performance

- Writing and/or responding to short and simple texts with relevant information and ideas (including personal experiences and imaginative ideas) with the help of cues (IS, KS, ES) (referred to as A below)

- Writing short and simple texts using a small range of vocabulary, sentence patterns and cohesive devices fairly appropriately despite some spelling and grammatical mistakes (KS) (referred to as B below)

Remarks

- Do not penalize students for grammatical or spelling mistakes that do not interfere with the communication of ideas.

* Information includes
  - what it looks like (physical appearance) (Do not accept incorrect information, e.g. ‘It is a long tail.’ or a very general description, e.g. ‘It has eyes.’)
  - what it eats (food)
  - where it lives (habitat)
  - etc
(B) – Structures (0, 1, 2)

Score of 2
- provide a clear description of an animal with very few grammatical or spelling mistakes
- show a good choice of words
- use different sentence patterns

Score of 1
- provide a rather clear description of an animal despite some grammatical or spelling mistakes
- use simple and appropriate words
- show control of simple sentence patterns
  - OR
  - provide a limited description of an animal with few grammatical or spelling mistakes
    - (please refer to Sample Script 10 & Sample Script C)

Score of 0
- provide a description with many grammatical or spelling mistakes
  - OR
  - provide limited information such that markers have difficulty in judging the student’s grammatical competence
  - OR
  - copy sentences from the example

Remarks
- Balanced judgement is to be used when assessing students’ performance.
- No score should be given for this BC if students provide irrelevant information or ideas.
Write about one more animal in your own words.

Sample Script 1 (2, 2)

- It is a hamster. It has two big eyes. It has a short tail. It is yellow. It eats carrots.
- It is very cute.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 2 for (A) and (B):
- The student provides the name of the animal ‘hamster’ and more than three pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It has two big eyes. It has a short tail. It is yellow.’). A score of 2 is given for (A).
- A small range of vocabulary and different sentence patterns are used in the description with very few grammatical mistakes. A score of 2 is given for (B).

- It is a fish. It has two big eyes.
- It has a small mouth. It is orange.
- It eats small fish.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 2 for (A) and (B):
- The student provides the name of the animal ‘fish’ and more than three pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It is has a small mouth. It is orange. It eats small fish.’). A score of 2 is given for (A).
- The student describes the animal by using a small range of vocabulary and different sentence patterns appropriately. A score of 2 is given for (B).

Sample Script 3 (2, 1)

- It is a big lion.
- It is brown.
- It is strong.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 2 for (A) and 1 for (B):
- The student provides the name of the animal ‘lion’ and three pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It is big lion. It is brown. It is strong.’). A score of 2 is given for (A).
- The sentences are all clear and grammatical but the same sentence pattern is used. A score of 1 is given for (B).
Write about one more animal in your own words.

Sample Script 4 (1, 2)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and 2 for (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘cat’ and two pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It has small feet. It is brown and white.’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- The student uses one cohesive device to link ideas. Different sentence patterns and a small range of vocabulary are used appropriately. The description is clear and grammatical. A score of 2 is given for (B).

Sample Script 5 (1, 2)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and 2 for (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘cat’ and two pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It has small ears’ and ‘It eats fish’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- The student uses a small range of vocabulary to describe the animal with no grammatical or spelling mistakes though full stops are missing in the first two sentences. A score of 2 is given for (B).

Sample Script 6 (1, 1)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and 1 for (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘cat’ and two pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It eat (eats) mouse. It is a beautiful anima (animal).’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- The student uses different sentence patterns to express his/her ideas with a small range of vocabulary. However, grammatical and spelling mistakes are made. A score of 1 is given for (B).
Write about one more animal in your own words.

Sample Script 7 (1, 1)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and (B):
- The student provides the name of the animal ‘dog’ and two pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It has a big nose. It has two big eyes.’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- The sentences are all clear and grammatical but the same sentence pattern is used. A score of 1 is given for (B).

Sample Script 8 (1, 1)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and (B):
- The student provides the name of the animal ‘cat’ and two pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It is dirty. It is fat.’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- Though the same sentence pattern ‘It is…’ is used by the student, the sentences are clear and grammatical. Therefore, a score of 1 is given for (B).

Sample Script 9 (1, 1)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and (B):
- The student describes the animal ‘It is good’ which is not specific enough. However, he/she provides one piece of information about the animal ‘It has a short tail’. A score of 1 is awarded for (A).
- The description is clear but full stops are missing in two sentences and a grammatical mistake is made. A score of 1 is awarded for (B).
Write about one more animal in your own words.

Sample Script 10 (1, 1)

It is a fish.

It is small.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘fish’ and one piece of information about it (e.g. ‘It is small.’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- The student provides a limited description of an animal with no grammatical or spelling mistakes. A score of 1 is given for (B).

Sample Script 11 (1, 0)

It is dog.

It has fattest face.

It is write.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and 0 for (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘dog’ and one comprehensible piece of information about it (e.g. ‘It has fattest face’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- The information provided is ungrammatical though comprehensible. A score of 0 is therefore given for (B).
Write about one more animal in your own words.

Sample Script 12 (0, 0)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 0 for (A) and (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘lion’. However, he/she only provides a very general description about the animal (e.g. ‘It has eyes. It has ear.’), which is not accepted. No score is awarded for (A).
- Grammatical and spelling mistakes are made in most of the sentences. No score is awarded for (B).

Sample Script 13 (0, 0)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for not awarding scores for (A) and (B):

- The student is only able to provide the name of the animal ‘dog’. No other information about the animal is written clearly. A score of 0 is given for both (A) and (B).
Sample Script 14 (0, 0)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for not awarding scores for (A) and (B):

- The student is unable to provide the correct name of the animal. He/She has written only one piece of information clearly: ‘It likes eating’. A score of 0 is given for (A).
- Though different sentence patterns are used, the information provided is confusing. Words that are misspelt (e.g. big ‘eraes’, ‘bog’ foot) interfere with the communication of ideas. A score of 0 is given for (B).

Sample Script 15 (0, 0)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for not awarding scores for (A) and (B):

- The student copies some ideas from the example in Section 1 (e.g. ‘It is monkey’ and ‘… like eat banana’). A score of 0 is given for (A) and (B).
Write about one more animal in your own words.

Sample Script A

It is a snake. It has a long tail. It is green.
It eats worms.

Sample Script B

It is a dog. It has two eyes.
It has long legs. It is white.

Sample Script C

It is a bird.
It has small eyes.
Write about one more animal in your own words.

Sample Script A (2, 2)

It is a snake. It has a long tail. It is green.
It eats worms.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 2 for (A) and (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘snake’ and three pieces of information about it (e.g. ‘It has a long tail. It is green. It eats worms.’). A score of 2 is given for (A).
- The description is clear and grammatical. The student uses a small range of vocabulary and different sentence patterns appropriately. A score of 2 is given for (B).

Sample Script B (1, 2)

It is a dog. It has two eyes.
It has long legs. It is white.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and 2 for (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘dog’ and two pieces of specific information about it (e.g. ‘It has long legs. It is white.’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- The student writes clearly and grammatically using a small range of vocabulary and sentence patterns to describe the dog. A score of 2 is given for (B).

Sample Script C (1, 1)

It is a bird.
It has small eyes.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1 for (A) and (B):

- The student provides the name of the animal ‘bird’ and one piece of information about it (e.g. ‘It has small eyes.’). A score of 1 is given for (A).
- The student provides a limited description of an animal with one grammatical mistake. A score of 1 is given for (B).

Flopsy has a lot of good friends. You also have a good friend.

Write about your good friend in 30 words or more.

My Good Friend

Expected Performance

- Writing and/or responding to short and simple texts with relevant information and ideas (including personal experiences and imaginative ideas) with the help of cues (IS, KS, ES)

Score of 3
- provide a clear, varied and coherent description of a good friend with supporting details or examples

Score of 2
- provide a rather clear description of a good friend with some supporting details or examples

Score of 1
- provide a description of a good friend with limited ideas

Score of 0
- unable to provide any description of a good friend
  OR
- write less than 10 words regardless of providing a description of a good friend

Remarks

- Accept any sensible or reasonable ideas.
- Do not penalize students for wrong use of capitalization, punctuation, spelling or grammatical mistakes that do not interfere with the communication of ideas.
Write about your good friend in 30 words or more.

Sample Script 1 (3)

My good friend is Jane. She has two big eyes, a big nose, a pink mouth and two little ears. She wears a pair of glasses and she has got long hair. She likes Maths and I like too, I love English but she doesn’t like. We like to eat ice-creams. I like her very much because she is my good friend.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 3:

- This response shows a good understanding of the question. The ideas are clearly communicated with supporting details, e.g. the description of her appearance is elaborated by ‘two big eyes’, ‘a big nose’, and ‘a pink mouth’, etc. Comparison and contrast is also made on the school subjects that the student and the friend like. The description is coherent and ideas are linked by ‘and’, ‘but’ and ‘because’.

Sample Script 2 (3)

My good friend is Betty Wong. She lives next to me. She is eight years old. She has two younger sisters. And one is a baby. She father’s has a car. The car is red. She mother loves me. She likes play computer games and she likes play with me too.

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 3:

- The student describes the good friend with supporting details like ‘She has two younger sisters. And one is a baby.’ and ‘She likes play computer games and she likes play with me too.’ The description of a good friend is clear and varied. The ideas are coherent and are linked by ‘and’ and ‘too’.
Write about your good friend in 30 words or more.

Sample Script 3 (2)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 2:

- The student gives a rather clear description about his/her good friend, e.g. her character, physical appearance and what she likes. The student also provides details about her appearance, e.g. ‘her eyes is small’ and ‘she has a short hair’. However, some of the ideas are not presented clearly to the readers, e.g. ‘buy food in ress’ and ‘spare English’.

Sample Script 4 (2)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 2:

- The student gives a description of his/her good friend by providing supporting details about the things that she likes to do, her favourite games, and food, etc.
Write about your good friend in 30 words or more.
Sample Script 5 (1)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1:
- The student provides a limited description about a good friend by giving his name and the things that he likes to do only.

Sample Script 6 (1)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for awarding a score of 1:
- The student provides a clear but limited description about her good friend: her name and information about her favourite subject. However, the description mainly focuses on her favourite subject.
Write about your good friend in 30 words or more.

Sample Script 7 (0)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for not awarding scores:
- The student is unable to provide relevant ideas about his/her good friend.

Sample Script 8 (0)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for not awarding scores:
- The student is unable to provide relevant ideas about his/her good friend.

Sample Script 9 (0)

The student’s performance corresponds to the following marking criteria for not awarding scores:
- The student provides irrelevant ideas by giving a description about Flopsy instead of his/her good friend. It shows that the student has no understanding of the question.
Write about your good friend in 30 words or more.

Sample Script A
