Part 2

Ken is in Hong Kong for holiday. It is his first day in Hong Kong. He is writing a diary about it.

Read it.

Saturday 1 January 2005

Today is my first day in Hong Kong. My cousin Cindy and her family picked me up at the airport.

After lunch, they took me to many places. We went to Stanley Market. There were many stalls. They sold different things. I bought some CDs and T-shirts at good prices there.

Then, Cindy and her family took me to the Peak. The view from the Peak was gorgeous. Many visitors took photos from there. We had dinner in a restaurant at the Peak. It was delicious. I had pork chop. It tasted very good! We watched the fireworks during dinner! I enjoyed the show very much. What a great day!

Ken and Cindy are talking about the sale in Fun Fun Department Store.

Read what they say.

Ken: Let’s go to Fun Fun Department Store. It’s having a sale. I want to buy some presents for my family.

Cindy: Yes, all the toys are very cheap there. I think you can buy your little brother David a toy gun or a robot.

Ken: Yes, he loves war games. I know what to buy for him. Dad likes playing tennis. He needs something to protect him from the sun. Hm…I’ll buy him something to put on his head. And Mum loves eating snacks. I want to get her something sweet.

Cindy: What about you? I know you smashed your badminton racket last week. You can’t use it anymore.

Ken: That’s true. I will buy a new one. All right. Let’s go to the department store now.
