Mary and her classmate are talking about the picnic.

Listen to the conversation. The conversation will be played two times. When you hear a beep (beep), tick the best answer.You now have 10 seconds to read the questions. (10-second music)

The conversation will begin now.

[Mary: John, you know, I'm getting excited about the school picnic.

John: Oh, yes. I'm excited, too. But I can't remember the date. When is the picnic?

Mary: This Friday, the twentieth of April.

Narrator: Question 1. On what date is the school picnic? // (beep) (5-second pause)

John: Are we going to Ocean Park?

Mary: No, not this time. We're going to Seaside Country Park.

John: Seaside Country Park? Can we swim there?

Mary: No, but it's a great place for a barbecue.

Narrator: Question 2. Where are the children going for the picnic? // (beep)
(5-second pause)

Mary: What shall we get for the barbecue?

John: Let's see... I'd like to get chicken wings, some fish balls. Mm... maybe some hamburgers.

Mary: I don't like hamburgers. Let's get some hot dogs. I'll also get some potato chips. They're yummy.

Narrator: Question 3. What are the children going to buy for the picnic? // (beep)
(15-second pause)

Mary: Are you going to the market near your home to buy the food?

John: No, Mum always goes to Harry Supermarket with me. It's big and there are lots of choices.

Narrator: Question 4. Where will John buy food for the picnic? // (beep) (5-second pause)

Mary: What games do you want to play on the picnic day?

John: Let me think... I like ball games.

Mary: OK. I know what to bring.

Narrator: Question 5. What will Mary bring to play with on the picnic day? // (beep)
(5-second pause)

Mary: Here's my stop. I have to get off now. See you tomorrow. Bye.

John: Bye.

Narrator: Question 6. Where are the children when they are talking to each other? // (beep)
(5-second pause)

Listen to the conversation again and check your answers. The conversation will begin now.
