Write one capital letter in this box.

You and two other members of the English Club are planning the English Week at your school. You are discussing your plans.

In your discussion, you may include:

- when it should be held
- why it should be held
- who will take part
- what activities to have
- where the activities will be held
- who should help with the activities
- any other important details

You may begin by saying:

We're planning the English Week at our school. What can we do?
