Part 1AJane is listening to a story.You now have 20 seconds to study the questions (20-second music).Now, listen to the story. When you hear a beep (beep), answer the question. The story will be played two times. The story will begin now.

Storyteller:

[Once upon a time, there was a girl called Mallory. She often asked her friends for favours, but she never did any in return. She often asked her classmates to carry her bag or buy her lunch, but she never helped to carry their bags or buy them lunch. None of her classmates liked her. Nobody wanted to play with her.

Narrator:

Question 1: What is the girl's name? (beep)(8-second pause)Question 2: What did the girl like to do? The girl _____. (beep)(8-second pause)

Storyteller:

One day, Mallory lost her purse at school. She asked several classmates to buy her a lunchbox. They refused, but finally one classmate agreed to buy her a lunchbox. Mallory still needed money to take the bus home. She begged her classmates to lend her $5. Everyone refused. Mallory was very sad because she had to walk a long way home.

Narrator:

Question 3: The following pictures describe what happened to the girl. Put the pictures in the correct order. (beep)(8-second pause)

Storyteller:

What can we learn from this story? We should not ask our friends for too many favours and we should share our things and help our friends when they are in need. If not, we won't be able to get help when we need it the most.

Narrator:

Question 4: This story teaches us to _____. (beep)(8-second pause) ]

Now, listen to the story again.
