A tourist is asking a hotel clerk for information.

Tourist: Good morning. I'd like some information, please.

Clerk: (Lady) Good morning sir. How can I help you?

Tourist: Is there a department store close by?

Clerk: (Lady) Yes sir, there is. Right next door to us.

Tourist: What time does it open in the morning?

Clerk: (Lady) It opens at 11 am.

Tourist: 11 am. That's in two hours. Good, I'd like to go to Mongkok first. How do I get there?

Clerk: (Lady) The best way sir, is to go to the ferry pier next to the hotel and take the ferry to Tsim Sha Tsui. From there, you can take the MTR to Mongkok. By the way, the ferries stop running at 1 am.

Tourist: All right. I'll go to Mongkok before I do any shopping. What time does the department store close?

Clerk: (Lady) The store closes at 10 pm sir. So you could do your shopping if you are back at about 8 pm.

Tourist: Thank you very much. Your information is very useful.

Clerk: (Lady) My pleasure sir. Enjoy your stay.

Peter and Lily have finished playing basketball.

Peter:

Did you take everything out of your locker, Lily?

Lily:

I'm sure I did. Let me just check my bag.

Peter:

Well, as long as you've got your mobile phone. You know you've got to call your Mum.

Lily:

Yeah, I told her I would give her a call to pick us up. OK, let me see. I've got my Student ID... makeup kit and... gym shorts. But... my phone and... wallet? Where are they? I can't find them.

Peter:

You must have left them in the gym.

Lily:

Well, let me check my bag again. Ah, here's my phone.

Peter:

... and your wallet?

Lily:

Silly me! I must've left it in my locker. I'll have to go back to the gym and get it. Can you wait here for me?

Peter:

All right. But make it quick.
