Tracy: Good morning everyone. I'm Tracy Lee. My first guest on 'Morning Café' is Richard Steele, an Asian travel magazine writer, who loves to visit Hong Kong. Good morning Richard.

Richard: Good morning Tracy. Yes, I love visiting Hong Kong. I never seem to get enough of this fast moving city.

Tracy: Tell me, when you first came to Hong Kong, what did you do and where did you go?

Richard: I remember I went to Ocean Park. The many different kinds of fish I saw there were quite impressive. What was especially cute was the official mascot.

Tracy: You mean Whiskers. I'm surprised you remember him. So what else have you done in Hong Kong?

Richard: I've visited Hong Kong four more times since then. One popular spot I like is Stanley Market. There are many good restaurants and the sea views are beautiful. The market is so alive with tourists from all over the world.

Tracy: What else do you like about Stanley?

Richard: Most of all, I like the low prices for the brand name clothing and accessories.

Tracy: What other places do you like to visit?

Richard: Well, another popular attraction I always like to see is the Big Buddha on Lantau Island.

Tracy: So Richard, would you recommend Hong Kong to others?

Richard: Without a doubt, yes indeed! The public transport system is one of the best I've seen. The hotels are world class. The food is fantastic!

Tracy: Thank you very much Richard. Please come back to see us the next time you're here. Stay tuned to 'Morning Café'. (fade out)

Narrator: Now listen to the radio programme again. {Repeat first time only}

Narrator: You have 30 seconds to check your answers. (30 seconds – music)
