Your English teacher wants your help to set up an English activity room. You and two other classmates are talking about what to have and do in the room.

In your discussion, you may include:

- what to have in an English activity room – DVD player, sofa...
- how to improve English – movies, songs...
- when to go to the English activity room – every day, special activities...
- any other details that are important

You may begin by saying:

Let's first talk about what would be good to have in an English activity room.
