Your teacher wants you to organise one activity to help raise money for the school. You and two other classmates are talking about what activity to hold.

In your discussion, you may include:

- possible activities – singing contest, selling food...
- when and where to hold the activity – after exams, playground...
- who will help organise the activity – parents, students...
- any other details that are important

You may begin by saying:

Let's talk about what activity would help to get money for our school.
