Your Student Union wants you to organise a summer camp for primary school students. You and two other members are talking about what to do.

In your discussion, you may include:

- primary school students – how many, how old...
- how long and where – three weeks, popular place...
- activities – games, competitions...
- any other details that are important

You may begin by saying:

Let's talk about holding a summer camp for primary school students.
