Your English teacher has asked you to tell the class the things you like most about your school.

Prepare a two-minute presentation explaining the things you like most about your school. You can use some ideas from the following mind map and/or your own ideas in your presentation.

You may use the following or your own words to begin and end your presentation.

Good morning/afternoon, everybody. I'm going to tell you the things I like most about my school.

That's the end of my presentation. Thank you.
