News #2

Narrator: You are listening to the news for information on a Liberal Studies project.

Listen to the news report and answer the questions. The news report will be played twice. Do as much as you can the first time and answer all questions the second time. You now have 30 seconds to read the questions. (music 30 secs.)

The news report will begin now.

[News reporter: Good evening, everyone. My name is John Wong and this is the ten o'clock news. Here are tonight's top stories:

A baby boy, who was kidnapped from a hospital just hours after being born, has been found safe and well in a village house. Two men and a young woman have been arrested and are being questioned by the police. (pause – 2 secs.)

The government's 'free milk' pilot programme for local primary school children has been extremely successful so far. According to a government spokesperson, the pilot scheme will help young boys and girls develop stronger bones. (pause – 2 secs.)

A sale will take place this Tuesday at Wanchai Primary School in order to raise funds for a new library. Businesses have donated their old computers to be sold at discount prices at the sale. (pause – 2 secs.)

A new restaurant has been opened downtown. It is the latest in a growing number of themed restaurants and this time, it's in a movie superhero theme. People are expected to dress as their favourite superheroes. (pause – 2 secs.)

And now for tomorrow's weather. It should be bright and sunny all day. The temperature is expected to reach 36 degrees so it will be extremely hot. The pollution index will be high as well.

I'll be back with more details after the break. Stay tuned.]

Narrator: Now listen to the news report again. {Repeat []}

Narrator: You have 30 seconds to check your answers. (music 30 secs.)

This is the end of Part 3.
