The chief editor of your school newspaper has asked you to prepare an interview with a famous person for the next issue. You and two other members of the editorial team are talking about the interview.

In your discussion, you may include:

- who to interview
- how to interview him/her e.g. online chat/video conferencing, face-to-face...
- questions to ask e.g. how he/she became famous, family life...
- how to attract readers
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

We are preparing an interview with a famous person for our school newspaper. First, let's talk about who we are going to interview.
