Your principal has asked the Student Union to do a survey to find out how teenagers spend money. You and two other members of the union are talking about the survey.

In your discussion, you may include:

- how to collect information e.g. questionnaires, interviews...
- who to interview
- questions to ask e.g. what they spend their money on, how much they spend...
- how to present the results
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

We are doing a survey to find out how teenagers spend money. First, let's talk about how to collect information.
