Part 4Tony is reading a story about David.

Read the first part of the story. Answer Questions 1 – 7.

On his way home from school, David heard a sound near the 1 entrance of his building.

‘Miaow! Miaow!’ David walked towards the sound. He found a box.
He opened the box and saw a small kitten inside. He picked it up to study it. It was a newborn kitten whose fur was like snow. After a while, he 5 put it back in the box.

David ran home and told his mother about the kitten. He begged, ‘Mum, please! The kitten is so small! If we leave it there, it will die in this cold weather!’ However, his mother said, ‘Son, I love cats, too! But they are no different from any other pets. We are not allowed to keep them in 10 our housing estate.’

David felt disappointed. He kept thinking about the kitten and could not sleep that night.

Read the second part of the story.

Answer Questions 8 – 12.

The next morning, David still saw the kitten in the box outside his building. 1

David held the kitten up again. It was as skinny as a stick. ‘You must be hungry,’ he said. He then bought a bottle of milk and fed it with care. After drinking the milk, the kitten purred. David was pleased. Then, he rushed to school because he was late. 5

At school, David was worried about the kitten. He told Miss Lee, his English teacher, about it. Miss Lee advised, ‘You should take it to an organisation called Lovely Animals Society. People there will take care of it.’

The next day, David and his mother took the kitten to the organisation. 10
An officer there wrote down some information about the kitten. He said, ‘We hope someone will adopt it soon.’
