Your principal has asked the Student Support Committee to think of ways to promote student welfare. You and two other members of the committee are talking about what can be done to help students.

In your discussion, you may include:

- why helping students is important
- what can be done e.g. study help, discounts - stationery/healthy food...
- who will be involved e.g. tutors, shop owners...
- how students can benefit
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The principal has asked us to think of ways to promote student welfare. First, let's talk about why helping students is important.
