You now have 55 seconds to study Questions 1 to 11. (55-second music)

Now, listen to the story. The story will be played two times. When you hear a beep (beep), answer the question. The story will begin now.

Miss Ho: [ Good morning, students. Today I'm going to tell you a story. It's about a 12-year-old boy called Billy. He was a very naughty student. He did not like going to school and doing homework. He spent most of his time playing video games and sleeping. However, his father taught him to fish and he liked that.

Narrator: Question 1: Which of the following is true about Billy when he was 12 years old? (beep) (8-second pause)

Miss Ho: One day Billy went fishing alone by the sea. Suddenly a large fish pulled on his fishing line. Of course, Billy became very excited. He was standing on a wet rock, but he suddenly slipped and fell into the water! Sadly, Billy did not know how to swim and the water was deep. He was in trouble! He cried, <<"Help! Help!">> He was sinking and sinking into deeper water.

Narrator: Question 2: Where did Billy go fishing one day? (beep) (8-second pause)

Question 3: Why was Billy in trouble? (beep) (8-second pause)

Listen to what Billy says again and answer Question 4.

Repeat << >>

Question 4: How did Billy feel? (beep) (8-second pause)

Miss Ho: Just then a man came along. He saw Billy crying for help and went to rescue him. The man found a bamboo stick nearby and held it out to Billy. // He pulled Billy out of the water. Billy's face was as white as a sheet. // The man had saved Billy from drowning. He was a swimming coach. When the swimming coach found that Billy could not swim, he offered to give him swimming lessons. Of course, Billy agreed at once. The man also told him it was dangerous to fish alone. Billy promised he would not do it again.

Narrator: Question 5: What did the man use to help Billy? (beep) (8-second pause)

Listen to the following and answer Question 6.

Repeat // //

Question 6: When the man pulled Billy out of the water, how did Billy feel?
(beep) (8-second pause)

Miss Ho: In the following weeks, this kind man taught Billy to swim and Billy found that he really enjoyed swimming. In fact, Billy practised almost every day for a year and became an excellent swimmer. He won some competitions and finally joined the Hong Kong Swimming Team. His classmates were proud of him.

Narrator: Question 7: What happened to Billy in the following weeks? (beep) (8-second pause)

Question 8: After Billy joined the Hong Kong Swimming Team, what would his classmates do? (beep) (8-second pause)

Miss Ho: Billy changed a great deal because of his swimming success. He began to work harder in school and got good marks. His swimming coach was very happy and so were Billy's parents. ]

Narrator: Question 9: Billy's life was changed because of _____. (beep) (8-second pause)

Question 10: What do you learn from Billy's story? (beep) (8-second pause)

Question 11: The following sentences are about the story. Put them in the correct order. (beep) (8-second pause)

Now, listen to the story again and check your answers.
