Terry is reading a newspaper article at home.

Read the article.

Have you ever seen Black-faced Spoonbills in Mai Po, Hong Kong? They are big white birds with black faces. They have long beaks that look like spoons. 1

In summer, Black-faced Spoonbills can be found in Northeast Asia. They like places where very few people go. In winter, they travel south. Mai Po Wetland is one of the places they like coming to most. 5

Black-faced Spoonbills eat fish and shrimps in shallow water by the sea. However, many people have moved near the sea. They build factories there and also pollute the area. As a result, the birds cannot find food, so the number of Black-faced Spoonbills has continued to drop. Fewer and fewer Black-faced Spoonbills will be seen in the future if people keep polluting the birds' homes in nature. 10

Part 4Terry is reading a story.

Read the first part of the story. Answer Questions 1 – 5.

Mary and Jenny lived next to each other. They also studied in the same class. But Mary did not play with Jenny. She told others, “Jenny is a poor girl. She has no helper at home and she has to do all the housework. So her hands are usually dirty.” Mary liked sharing her chocolate with her classmates. However, when Jenny came near, she quickly walked away. 1 5

Last month, Mary’s helper left. Mary’s parents had to work, so no one could make rice and vegetables for her. Her mother showed her some simple steps to cook noodles.

At noon, Mary started to make noodles but then she went to watch TV. She forgot about the food! Suddenly, she heard a crackle and there was a bad smell. 10
She rushed into the kitchen and saw that the pot was all black.

- ☐ B. someone running
- ☐ C. water boiling
- ☐ D. the television

Read the second part of the story. Answer Questions 6 – 10.

The doorbell rang. Mary opened the door and saw Jenny. Jenny asked, “Are you okay? I smelt something bad and saw some smoke coming from your kitchen.” 1

Mary told her what had happened and began to sob. Jenny said, “Don’t worry. I used to be a bad cook. When I cooked beef the first time, it was just like stone.” Jenny helped Mary cook another bowl of noodles. 5

Mary smiled and said, “You are so kind and so good at cooking!”

Jenny said, “Because I love doing housework.”

The next day when Mary was sharing her chocolate with friends, she saw Jenny sitting alone. This time, Mary didn’t walk away. She ran over to Jenny quickly. 10
