Part 1: Reading Aloud

Read the following text aloud.

Mother's Day

Over 100 years ago, a woman in America wanted to choose a day to thank mothers for taking care of their children. The second Sunday in May then became Mother's Day. People put flowers on their clothes and went to church.

Today people celebrate the day everywhere. To thank their mothers for all their love and support, people give flowers, cards and gifts to them.

Part 2: Teacher-Student Interaction

The teacher will ask you some questions. Answer them.
