The principal wants students to suggest new extra-curricular activities (ECA) that will interest them. You and two other students are discussing ECA.

In your discussion, you may include:

- what ECA students would find interesting and relevant
- why students like or dislike the current ECA e.g. large groups, activities outside of school...
- the benefits of new ECA e.g. keep students interested, learn new things...
- when the new ECA will start
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The principal wants us to suggest new extra-curricular activities (ECA) that will interest students. First, let's talk about what ECA students would find interesting and relevant.
