Part 3

Ben is reading a passage about a famous writer, Hans Christian Andersen.

Read the passage.

The Ugly Duckling is one of the world's famous fairy tales. The writer is H.C. Andersen. Do you know anything about his life?

1

Andersen was born in 1805 in Denmark. His father died in 1816 so Andersen and his mother became very poor. Then, he was sent to a school where he could learn to make clothes and earn some money. Three years later, he left the school and started to sing and act in a theatre. Unfortunately, his voice changed, so he decided to work as a writer.

5

In 1835, he wrote his first book of famous stories like The Princess and the Pea and The Emperor's New Clothes. Besides children's stories, Andersen wrote poems and books about travel. However, his fairy tales were the most popular.

10

In 1875, Andersen passed away because he was very sick. To remember him, people celebrate International Children's Book Day every year on his birthday.

Part 4

Ben is reading a news report.

Read the first part of the report. Answer Questions 1 – 6.

A jewellery shop in Kowloon was robbed yesterday. The robbers escaped 1 with a lot of jewellery.

At about 10 am, three robbers rushed into Marigold Jewellery Shop in Mong Kok. They were all wearing masks and dressed in black. Two of them 5 pointed guns and ordered a salesman to open the glass cases. The salesman refused, so a robber broke the glass with a hammer. The robbers moved like lightning, took out the jewellery and put it all in a bag in about 10 seconds.

A saleswoman pressed a bell under the counter to alert the police. She hoped they would come immediately. When the robbers tried to leave the shop, the police arrived. The robbers fired at them while running out of the shop, but 10 did not hurt anyone. Their friend was waiting for them outside in a taxi.

Choose the best answer by blackening the circle.
