The Student Welfare Committee is going to plan some activities for all Form 1 students in the first week of the new school year. You and two other members of the committee are talking about the activities.

In your discussion, you may include:

- why the activities are important for the school and all Form 1 students e.g. to show the school spirit and welcome students, help students make new friends...
- special activities e.g. welcome games, start of the Big Brother/Sister Scheme...
- how and where to organise the activities
- who will run the activities
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The Student Welfare Committee is going to plan some activities for all Form 1 students in the first week of the new school year. First, let's talk about why the activities are important for the school and all Form 1 students.
