The Social Service Club wants to build relationships with other schools in the district. You and two other students are discussing activities that could be used to bring the schools together.

In your discussion, you may include:

- the benefits of these relationships e.g. students and teachers work together, help others...
- what kinds of activities could bring the teachers and students together e.g. storytelling, drama workshop...
- how to inform students and teachers at the different schools
- where and how often the activities should be held
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The Social Service Club wants to build relationships with other schools in the district. First, let's talk about the benefits of these relationships.
