Write one capital letter in this box.

The English Society is going to plan an English Camp. You and two other members of the English Society are talking about the camp.

In your discussion, you may include:

- why the camp is important e.g. to have fun learning and playing in English, help students improve their English...
- special activities e.g. training for the English Society members, what games and activities to play/run...
- how, when and where to have the camp
- who will run the camp
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The English Society is going to plan an English Camp. First, let's talk about why the camp is important.
