Part 3

Jenny is writing an email to her friend, Bonnie.

Read the email.

FROM: jenny@tsaeaa.com

TO: bonnie@tsaeaa.com

SUBJECT: Hong Kong Sightseeing

REPLY

Fri, 6 April, 6:45 PM

Hi Bonnie,

Good to hear that you will visit Hong Kong next month. Let me suggest what you can do here.

First you can try dim sum in a Chinese restaurant. Then you can visit the Peak to see beautiful views of Hong Kong. After that you can go to Kowloon. Instead of the MTR, you can take the Star Ferry so that you can see the beautiful harbour.

The best place for shopping here is the Ladies' Market in Mong Kok. You can buy things at low prices.

You must not miss the Bun Festival on Cheung Chau. Some children dress like famous people. They sit on colourful floats that go around the island. At night, people climb up bun towers to get lucky buns in an exciting competition. You can also buy some buns. Check the weather before you go. You may need an umbrella.
