Your school district is running School Promotion Week. You and two members of the School Promotion Committee are talking about how to promote the school.

In your discussion, you may include:

- why School Promotion Week is important e.g. attract more students, inform the public about the school...
- special activities to promote the school e.g. School Open Day, games and activities...
- how, when and where to have the activities/events
- who to invite to School Promotion Week
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The school district is running School Promotion Week. First, let's talk about why School Promotion Week is important.
