P6 students will be visiting your school. You and two other class members are talking about when the primary students will visit and the activities to hold.

In your discussion, you may include:

- what activities to run that will interest the P6 students e.g. English karaoke, board games...
- what snacks to provide for the P6 students e.g. chocolate, chicken wings...
- when and where the activities will take place
- who will run the activities
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

P6 students will be visiting our school. First, let's talk about what activities to run that will interest the P6 students.
