Well Done, Mary!

One school holiday, Mary and her dad go to a village. It is hot. Mary takes a small fan and also her sunglasses. At the village, they go to a store. Dad buys sandwiches and fruit.

They go up a tree house and watch some parrots. Mary thinks the parrots are funny because they can talk. Dad likes the beautiful flowers, birds and butterflies in the garden, but Mary likes the parrots most. She takes many photos.

Mary and her dad come to a river. They see some fish. Mary takes a net from her bag and catches the fish. She wants to keep them. Dad tells Mary to put the fish back in the river. The river is their home. Mary puts the fish back. She is happy because the fish can stay in the river.
