Dear Florence,

Thank you very much for the card. I love the picture of a snowman and candles.

We have to cancel the trip to Hong Kong because of COVID-19. When I found out that we can't visit you, my heart sank like a rock.

Here in the UK, we have to stay home most of the time. Mum only goes out shopping once a week. Schools are suspended, so Lucy and I have online lessons at home. Dad also works from home.

I still remember the summer trip to Hong Kong two years ago. You took me to Mongkok, which was very crowded. The street food and bubble tea were delicious! Also, Uncle Sam took me to Cheung Chau and bought me a key chain. It's still on my school bag!

I hope we can visit you soon. Lucy and I talked about where to go in Hong Kong. She wants to go to Lion Rock Country Park. The view of the city from there is amazing. What do you think?

Love,
Terry
