English Week is coming soon. You and two members of the English Club are talking about successful activities/events and what else can be done to make the week successful.

In your discussion, you may include:

- past activities/events and why they were successful
- best places to hold activities/events and why e.g. hall, large space...
- suggestions for new activities/events
- how to get more students interested and why e.g. new events/lots of prizes, make the week more successful...
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

We're going to talk about English Week. First, let's talk about past activities/events and why they were successful.
