The school is going to hold events and activities to celebrate World Environment Week. You and two members of the planning committee are talking about the events and activities.

In your discussion, you may include:

- reasons for celebrating World Environment Week e.g. teach students how to protect the environment, learn about different ways to save the environment...
- when and where to hold World Environment Week
- different activities/events to include e.g. trips to wetland/country parks, poster design competition...
- how to promote the activities/events and why
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:
We are going to be holding World Environment Week soon. First, let's talk about the reasons for celebrating World Environment Week.
