7th June 20XX

1

Dear Mummy,

School is closed these days, but you stay home with me for lessons.

When I have questions about my homework, you always help me. My Maths is poor, but you don't get angry.

Sometimes, I feel unhappy because I don't meet my teachers and friends. You sing and draw with me at home. We run and cycle in the park to stay healthy.

Thank you, Supermum!

Love,
Mark

Tom and the Bees

1

Tom loves birds, fish and butterflies but he is afraid of bees.

One school holiday, he visits Aunt Mary's farm. It is a beautiful, quiet place. Aunt Mary shows Tom some wooden boxes. Tom sees many bees in the boxes and screams loudly. Everyone on the farm can hear him.

Aunt Mary says, "Bees are helpful. They make honey in the boxes." She gives Tom a spoon of honey. "It tastes sweet," she says. "It's healthy too." Aunt Mary gives him a jar of honey and a book about bees to take home.

Now Tom knows bees are good for the Earth because they help plants to grow. They are our friends. He sees the bees on the farm every weekend and he loves them.
