Part 2

Mark is writing a letter to his teacher Mr Wong.

Read the letter.

7th June 20XX

Dear Mr Wong,

I love going to school. I like Chinese, Maths and Music but my favourite subject is English.

I feel happy in your lessons. You play games with us and tell us funny stories. We ask many questions but you don't get angry. At recess, you talk to us like a friend.

My dad sometimes reads your notes in my workbooks and exercise books. He thinks you are a good English teacher.

Thank you!

Your student,
Mark

Read the story.

Patty's Wishes

Patty the horse lives with her friends, a sheep and a cow. She is young and strong, but she is not happy. Patty thinks other animals are good but she is not. She wants to be like them.

Patty wishes to fly like a sparrow. She makes two small wings. She puts them on and jumps from a big rock. She falls into a river because she is very heavy and hurts her head and legs.

Patty also wants to look pretty. She makes rabbit ears and teeth and wears them to see her friends. They think Patty looks like a monster. They are scared and run away. Patty is sad. She throws everything away and her friends play with her again.

Now Patty thinks it is great to be a horse.
