Your English teacher wants the class to write a report about your school and the area it is in. You and two classmates are talking about what to write about the school and the area.

In your discussion, you may include:

- where your school is located
- access by public transport e.g. easy, not near public transport...
- other features of the school or area it is in e.g. swimming pool, shopping centre...
- best and worst things about the area/location
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

Our English teacher wants us to write a report about our school and the area it is in. First, let's talk about where our school is located.
