The English Society is thinking about introducing new activities. You and two members of the English Society are talking about new activities.

In your discussion, you may include:

- old activities e.g. movie week, English games...
- suggested new activities and how to promote them
- who will be involved and why e.g. only certain year groups, only suitable for the age group...
- when and where the activities will take place and why
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The English Society is thinking about introducing new activities. First, let's talk about the old activities.
