The Student Welfare Club is planning a series of educational activities that include animals. You and two other club members are talking about the activities.

In your discussion, you may include:

- when and where the activities will take place e.g. off campus, covered playground...
- the types of animals included in the activities e.g. pets, like cats and dogs, different animals like sheep, pigs...
- how many activities and why
- which students will be involved and why
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The Student Welfare Club is planning a series of educational activities that include animals. First, let's talk about when and where the activities will take place.
