The Student Welfare Group is helping to plan the return to school after the pandemic. You and two other members of the Student Welfare Group are discussing the things that can be done to make the return to school easier for students.

In your discussion, you may include:

- different events/activities that can be held for students and why e.g. yoga classes, help students relax...
- when and where these events/activities will take place
- who will be involved and why e.g. entire school/certain year levels, students need help...
- how and where to promote the different events/activities
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

The Student Welfare Group is helping to plan the return to school after the pandemic. First, let's talk about different events/activities that can be held for students and why.
