Susan Bright's newest story

Ellie finds a shiny silver key and a secret door in her grandma's bedroom. When she turns the key, it makes a soft click, and the door glows and opens with a quick 'swish'. Behind the door is a strange world full of bright colours. Ellie meets some children who are caught by a monster inside this world. To help them get out, she must fight with the monster and find the magic sword before sunset.

Ellie doesn't have much time. The sunlight is fading, getting darker and darker, and the door will close forever. She must be brave and act quickly to escape with the children.

Will Ellie find the sword in time? Can she help the children? Step into the strange world and join Ellie on an exciting adventure!

Make Your Own Grass Head

1

Watch seeds grow into grassy 'hair'! This fun project shows you how a plant grows. You can use an old sock to create a fun grass-head character! Here's how to make it:

Materials

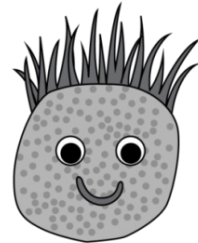

5

- an old sock
- 2 teaspoons of grass seeds
- a small, short container without a lid
- decorations (e.g. googly eyes, buttons and ribbons)
- 1 cup of soil
- a rubber band
- glue

Steps

10

1. Put the grass seeds into the bottom of the old sock.
2. Add some soil on top of the seeds and make a shape like a tennis ball.
3. Tie the top of the ball with the rubber band.
4. Glue some decorations on to make a face.
5. Place the grass head in the container.
6. Water it every 2 days.
7. Trim the grassy 'hair' when it gets too long.

15

Care tips: Place it in the sun and don't make it too wet!

SUNNY NEWSPAPER

14 June 20XX

Good Deeds Bring Smiles with Free Meals

A 10-year-old girl is making her neighbourhood shine with kindness.

A few years ago, Sarah and her parents saw a homeless man sitting on a bench next to a slide. The man was shaking and he was too weak to stand. Sarah was worried, so she brought him some soup. The man thanked her for saving his life.

With the support from her parents, Sarah started a project called 'Kindness Kitchen'. She receives food donations from her neighbours and restaurants. The project now feeds about 100 people weekly.

Peter receives free meals from Sarah's family every Tuesday. He said, 'I can't work because I have to take care of my sick mother all day long. I am broke. I have no money to buy food or pay the rent. Sarah's food and smiles make me feel cared for.'

Sarah hopes to help more people when she grows up by giving them food every day.

Dear Miss Wong,

How are you? We haven't seen each other since July. I want to tell you about a bad fight I had with my sister.

Last Saturday, I wanted to go out with my friends to watch a movie. The night before, I picked my favourite dress and put it on the chair. It is a sleeveless white dress with a flower pattern. When I woke up, the dress was gone. I spent a long time looking for it, so I was late. My friends waited so long that they missed the best part of the movie. I cried and explained to them what happened when I got there.

In the evening, my sister, Amy, came home in my favourite dress. I shouted at her, 'How could you wear my dress without asking me?' She replied, 'You put it on the chair, so I thought you didn't need it.' I was really angry.

Choose the best answer by blackening the circle.

1. Sally went out with her friends to _____.
 - A. buy a dress
 - B. have afternoon tea
 - C. play football
 - D. see a film

- A. Amy came home late
- B. Amy made Sally's dress dirty
- C. Amy was late for the movie
- D. Amy wore Sally's dress

Read the second part of the email. Answer Questions 6 – 9.

In the following days, our room was like a library. We did not talk or look at each other. Suddenly, Amy turned to me and said sorry first. Her voice was like a kitten. It was hard to hear. I was shocked and said sorry to her as well. 15

We will not take each other's things without asking. That is the promise we will keep. This is the most important lesson I have learnt this summer.

Thank you for teaching me over the past few years. I will visit you in October.

Best regards,
Sally 20
