The school reporters are planning to interview a role model. You and two other reporters are talking about the interview.

In your discussion, you may include:

- what qualities a role model should have (e.g. creative and hardworking)
- who to interview
- how to interview him/her (e.g. face-to-face or online)
- what questions to ask
- anything else that you think is important

You may begin by saying:

We are planning to interview a role model. First, let's talk about what qualities a role model should have.
